

CONTINENTAL CONTENDERS — 1984 —

Yes, here they are, everyone... the long-awaited final standings and annual (?) awards for that most beloved (?) of summer card games... CONTINENTAL. This year saw some heated competition, and interesting results, as you can see from the stats sheet. Congratulations to all the winners, and does anyone know who Kris is?

This year's awards include:

"Most Likely To Be Assassinated" next year if she wins 60% of her games again: Ronnie

"Most Persevering" for playing the most games without a single win: Hilda

"Best Sport" for continuing to pretend to enjoy the game despite past experience: Chuck and...

"Honorable Mention for Best Singing Voice" to Barbara, who gave three valiant attempts to stay awake for us before giving in to her eyelids... but always with a warning song beforehand.
